

SSI Vikram Award

The SSI Vikram Award is given to a person for his/her outstanding leadership in realising innovative real life system of National importance having societal application.

The nomination can be submitted to the Secretary, Systems Society of India with a CV of the nominee. The nomination is presented to a committee which makes recommendation to the executive committee of SSI. The award is generally given during the National Systems Conference.